GIVE them ALL™ they need

A unique assessment that looks at both language and emergent literacy skills.

By Linda J. Lombardino, R. Jane Lieberman, and Jaumeiko J.C. Brown
Evaluate Both Language and Emergent Literacy Skills Critical to Early Reading

The ALL subtests correspond with the instructional components of Reading First, and

- Outlines/Explains the nature and severity of the problem
- Aids in making recommendations for intervention
- Provides information about a child’s expected reading and language ability based on grade level

ALL includes a Caregiver Questionnaire that addresses language development and emergent literacy in the home. Test results and feedback from questionnaire assists in profiling a child’s deficits into one of four types:

- Language Disorder
- Language Disorder and Emergent Literacy Deficits
- Emergent Literacy Deficits
- Weak Language and/or Emergent Literacy due to environmental factors
